1. INTRODUCTION

EAMS Group is committed to protecting the rights of individuals in line with the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA) and the new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Our company is registered with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) and complies with the Data Protection Act 1998 and with the data protection principles set out in the Act.

This document refers to personal data, this is defined as information concerning any living person (a natural person who hereafter will be called the Data Subject) that is not already in the public domain. The Data Protection Act (DPA), Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR) and The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which is EU wide and far more extensive, seek to protect and enhance the rights of data subjects. These rights cover the safeguarding of personal data, protection against the unlawful processing of personal data and the unrestricted movement of personal data within the EU. It should be noted that GDPR does not apply to information already in the public domain. EAMS Group is pleased to provide the following GDPR information:

2. WHO ARE WE?

EAMS Group enables digital transformation for asset intensive industries by supplying software solutions tailored to suit organisations. More details of our solutions and our core values can be found here : <https://www.eams-group.com/about-eams-group/mission-vision-values/>

3. PERSONAL DATA?

The GDPR defines personal data as the following:

‘Any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (‘data subject’); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person;’

Personal data can include: name, job title, date of birth, passport data, home address, home telephone number, email address, emergency contact etc.

‘Special categories’ of personal data (sensitive personal data) relate to racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

4. COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

We may collect personal information from you if you provide it voluntarily.

If you do provide personal information to use, we will assume that you have read this Policy and have consented to us using your personal information in the ways described in this Policy and at the point where you give us your personal information.

If, after providing us with personal information, you later decide that you do not want us to use it for particular purposes, then please write to us at the appropriate address.

5. HOW WILL YOUR INFORMATION BE USED?

In the course of our dealing with you we may collect and process certain information about you, including your name, date of birth, address, contact details (including your email address and contact telephone number), payment details (where applicable), any benefits you receive or are entitled to (including disability benefits) (where applicable), and other information about you and your property in respect of which services and products may be provided.

Your personal information may be used by us, our employees, contractors or agents to:
